Class News

On Monday, Kingfisher Class joined forces with the Robins for an afternoon of PE out on the field. The Kingfishers had worked so hard to plan, set-up and organise their games, which the Robins loved playing! There were smiles all round from both children and adults on the field, as it was so lovely to see such leadership on display from Year 3 and 4. The Robins also displayed real perseverance when tackling the challenges that each activity held. A fabulous afternoon, well done everyone!

10am FIRST HOLY COMMUNION SERVICE IN CHURCH

Unfortunately, due to unforeseen circumstances the First Holy Communion mass time has changed.

Apologies for any inconvenience caused.

Message from the head teacher:

Thank you to all that have helped to prepare the children for Confirmation and First Holy Communion. All have prepared well for these sacraments.

Could I ask that children's uniforms remain smart up to the end of the academic year? I appreciate they may have grown out of shoes and you would wish to wait until September; this is the only concession to correct uniform.

I need to remind you that children must not play on the trim trail before or after school as we are not insured.
