Celebrating Art in Care was the theme for the Galanos House Care Home Open Day. As it was Armed Forces Day on Saturday 29th June, Galanos House challenged groups in the Southam community to create a piece of Art celebrating the theme of Armed Forces/Veterans Day. We relish a challenge here at St Mary's, so each class busily prepared their competition entry. I am sure you will agree that they are wonderful! The judging has now taken place and I can reveal that 3 of the entries were placed 3rd, 4th and 6th, with the fourth receiving a 'Highly Commended' - well done to one and all!

Have a Chuckle: Two fishermen rent a boat to go fishing in a local lake. By the end of the day they are delighted to find they have caught no less than fifty fish. The first fisherman turns to his friend and says 'Mark the spot so we know where to come to tomorrow!' The second fisherman finds his penknife and carves a big cross on the side of the boat. 'You Idiot!' says the first fisherman. 'What if we don't get the same boat tomorrow?'
