

Working on behalf of

Fosse Way closure information

Road works and traffic diversions for the new roundabouts at Long Itchington Road and Welsh Road in Offchurch, Warwickshire

Last updated 08 April 2022 – keep checking back for updates and new maps, which will appear here as they become available

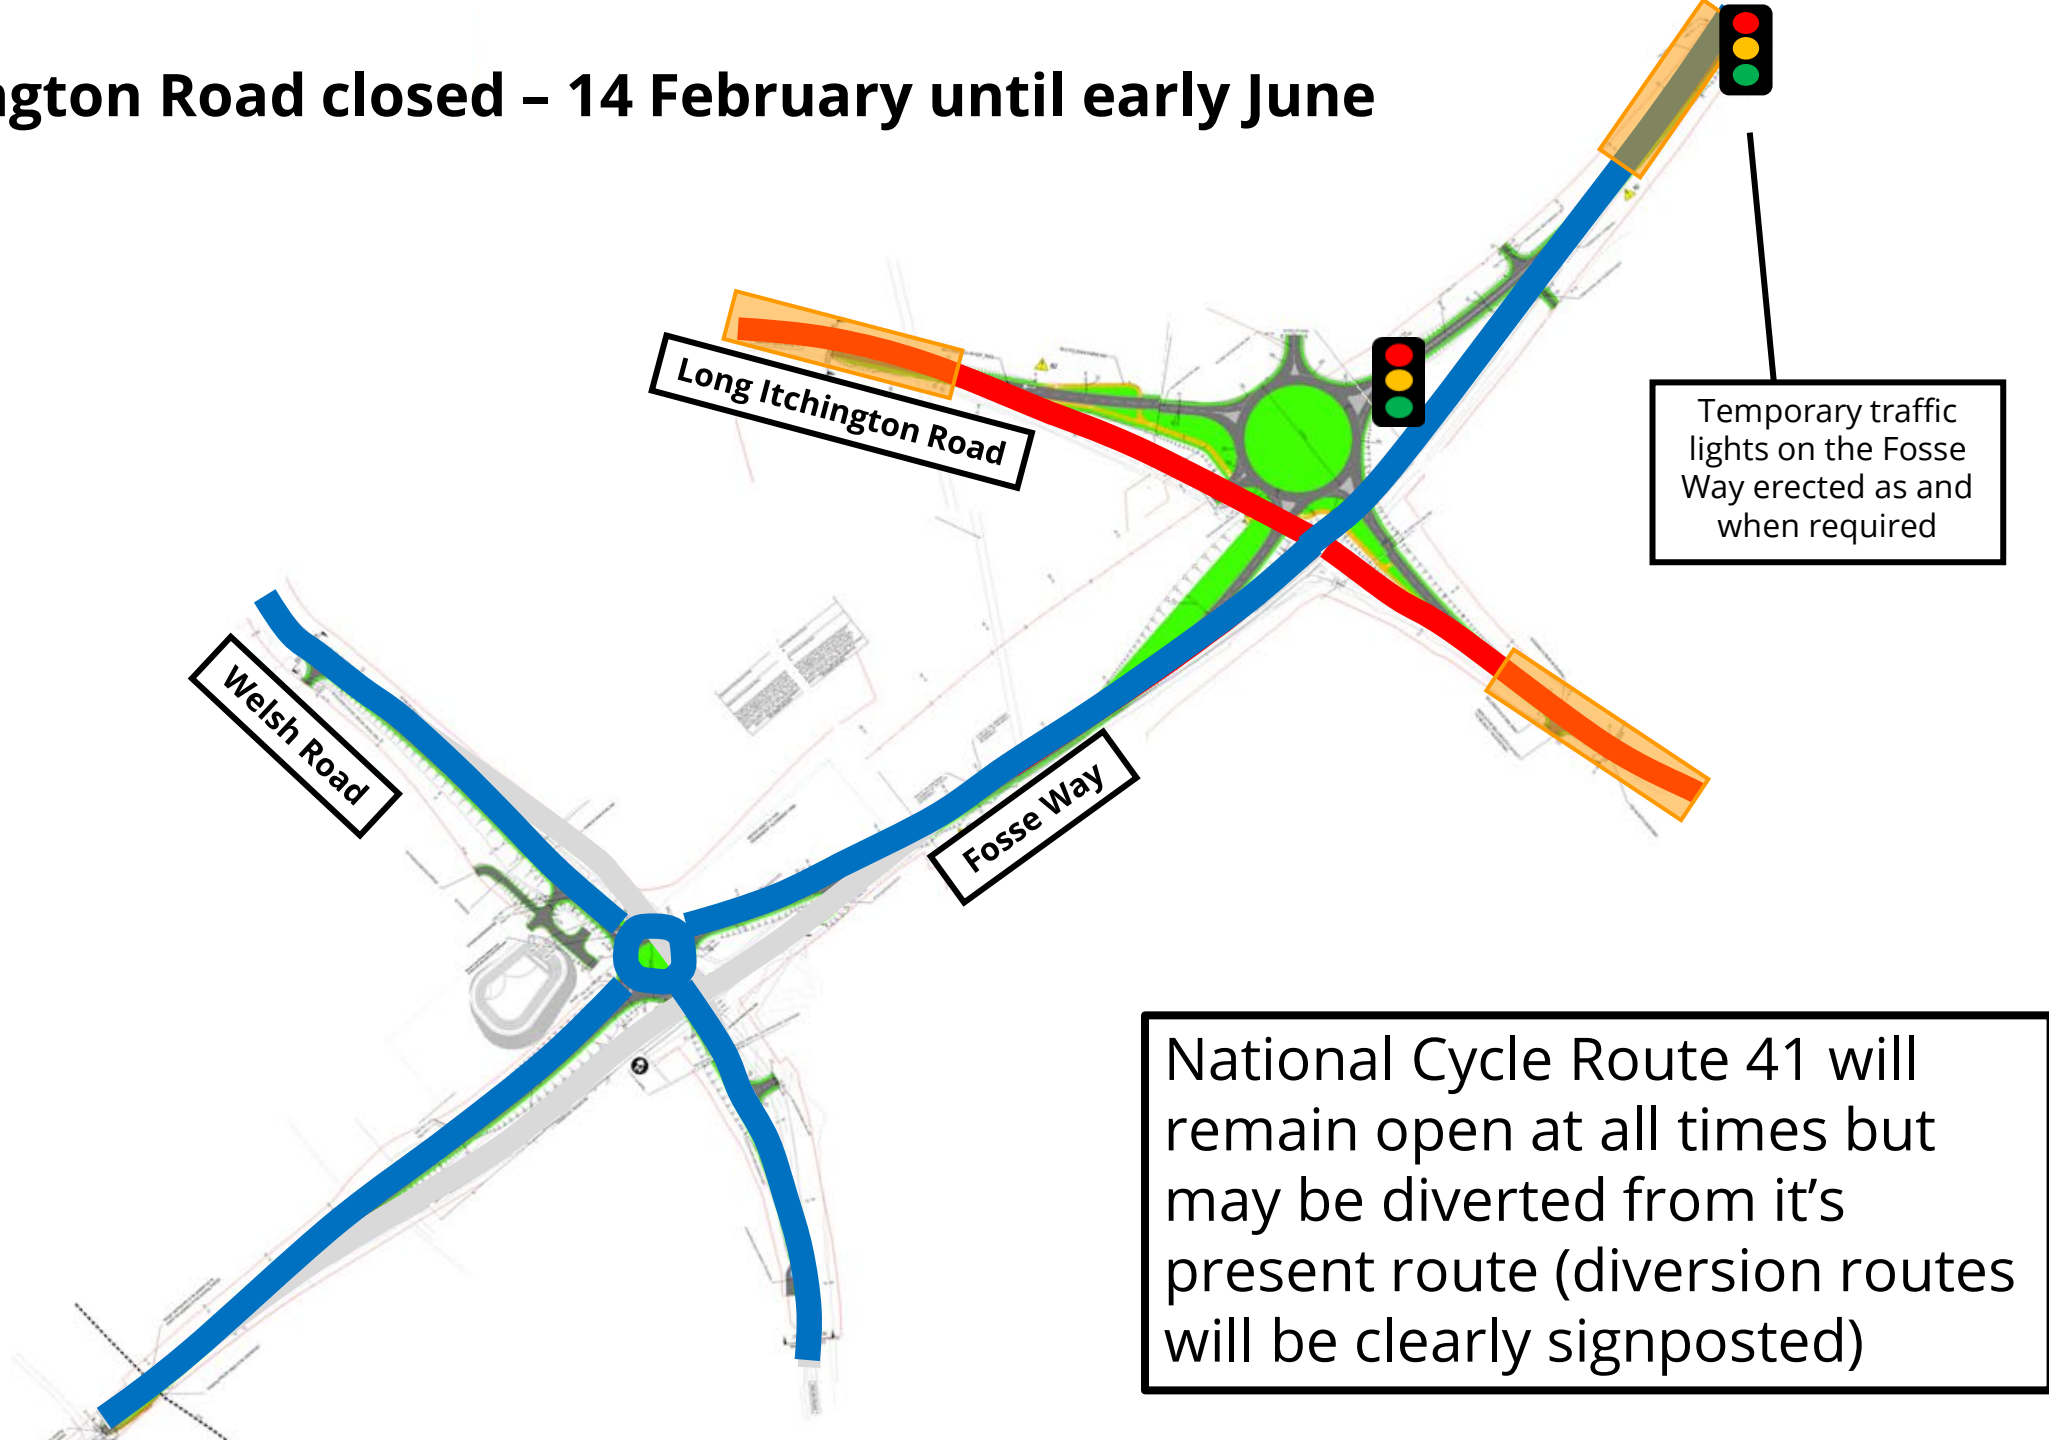

PLEASE NOTE: All traffic management outlined in this update is subject to consents, and subject to change

Road closures

- Maps of working areas on Fosse Way, Long Itchington Road and Welsh Road
- Diversion routes

Long Itchington Road closed – 14 February until early June 2022

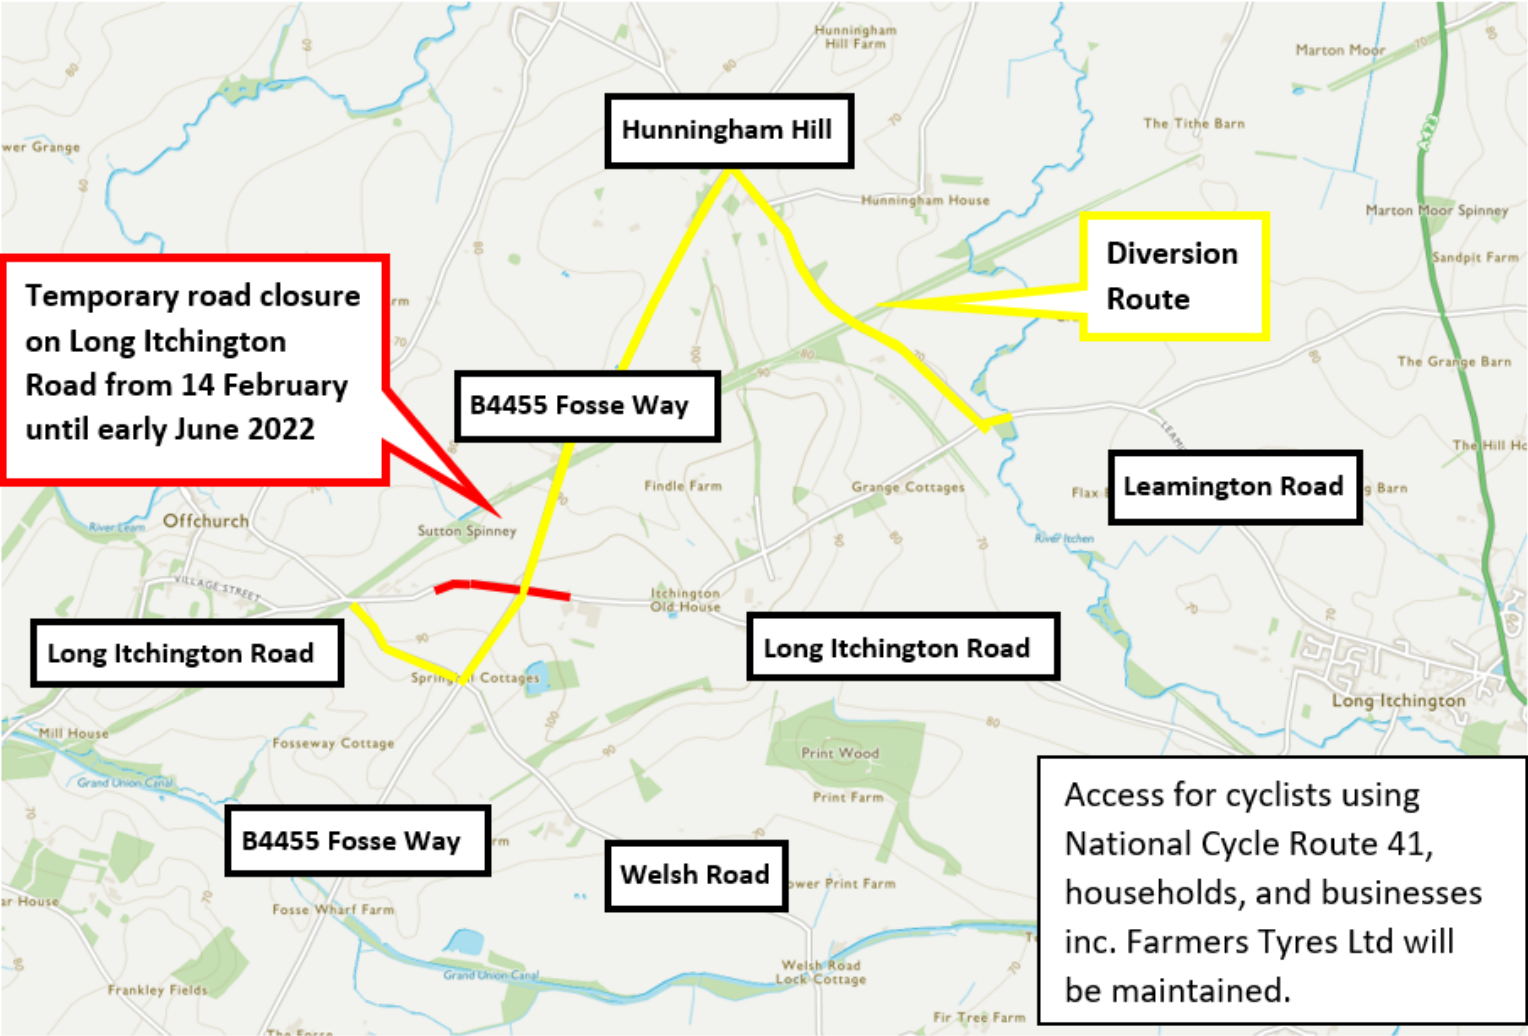

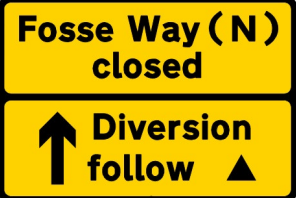

Temporary traffic lights on the Fosse Way erected as and when required

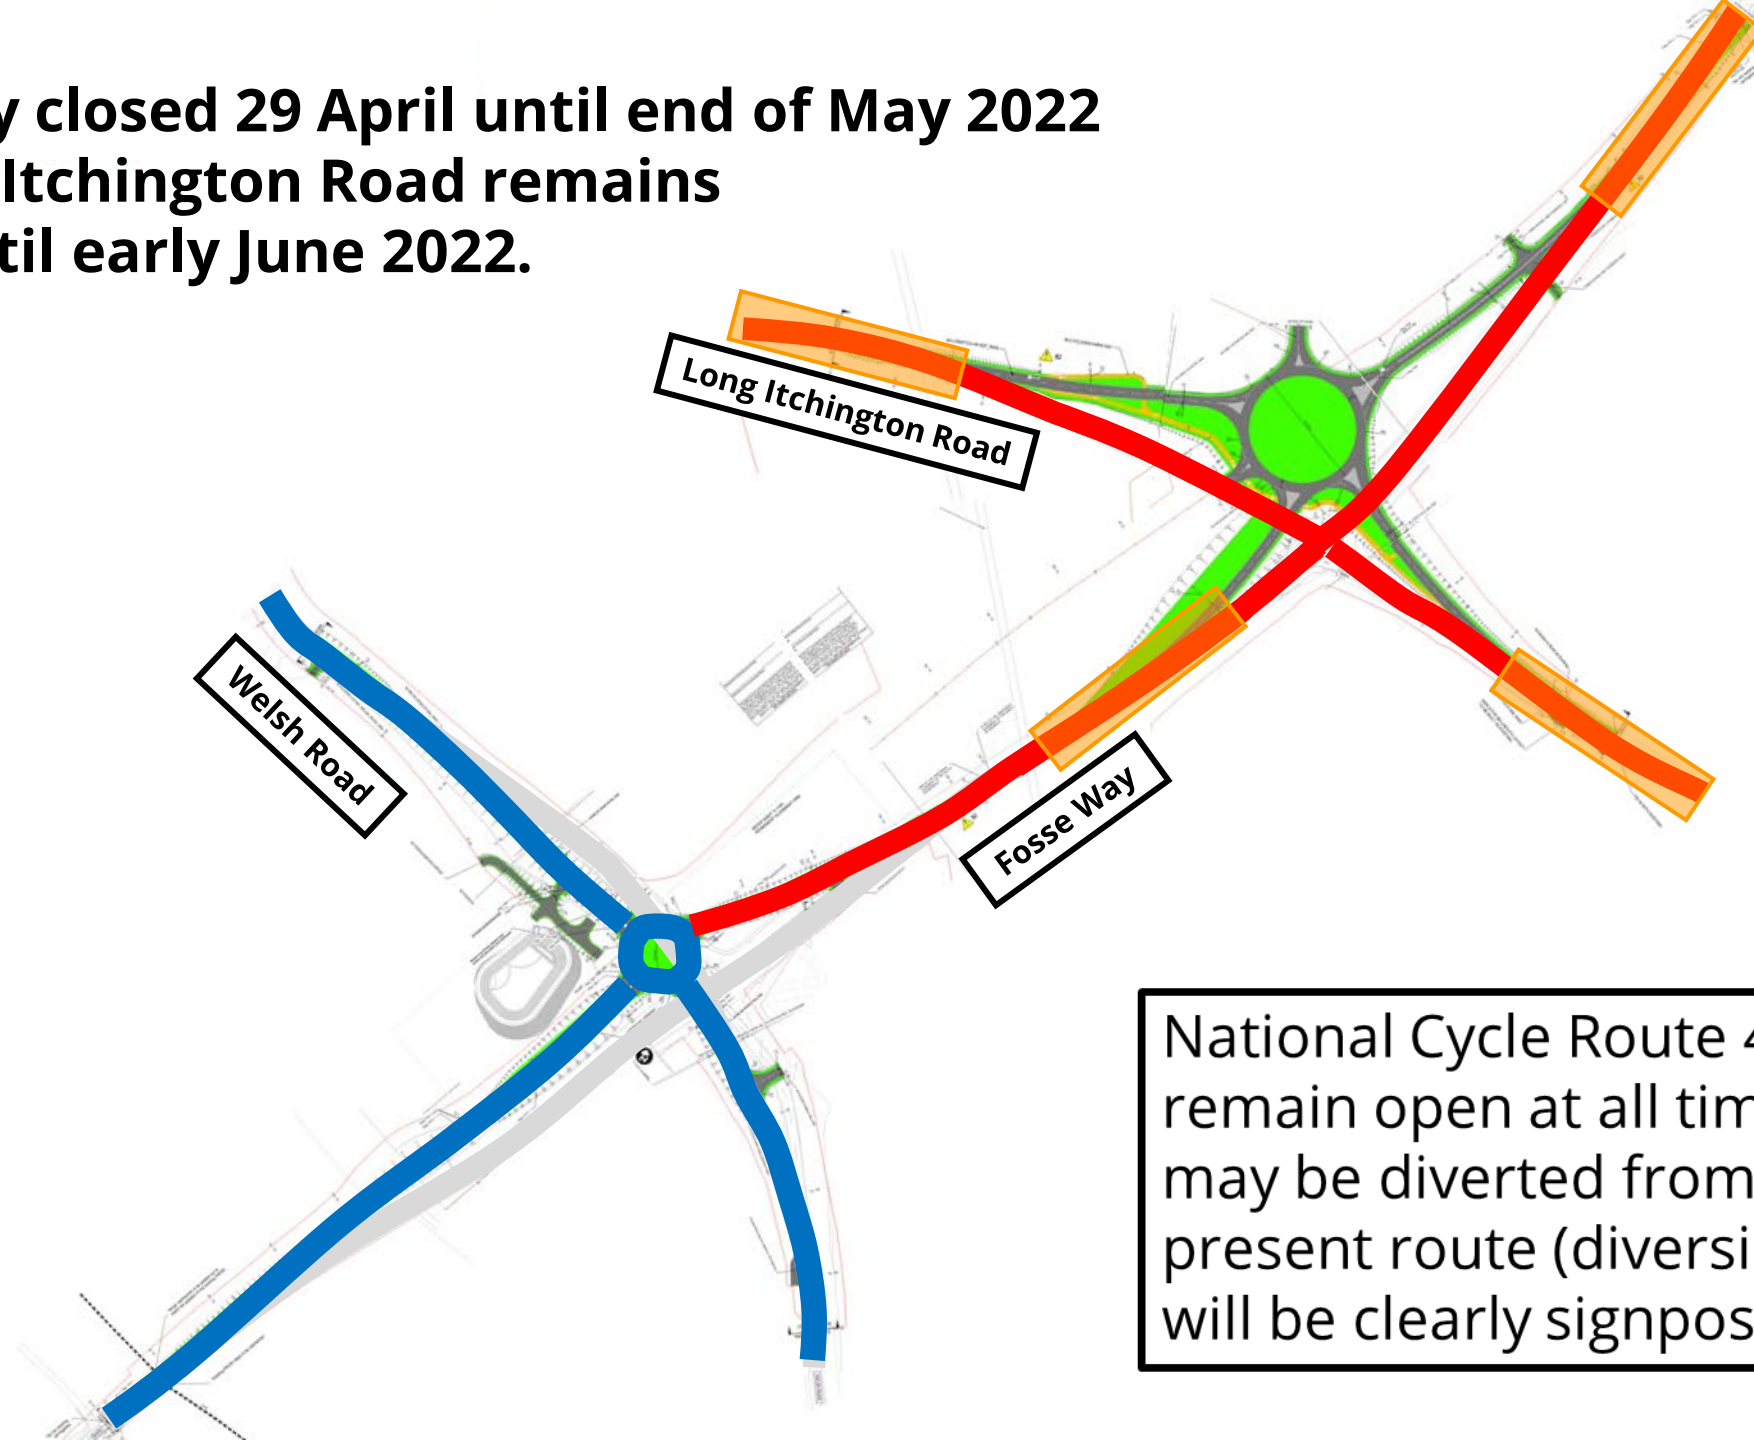

National Cycle Route 41 will remain open at all times but may be diverted from it's present route (diversion routes will be clearly signposted)

Diversion route for Long Itchington Road closure

Follow the yellow and black diversion signs on the road, for example:

Fosse Way closed 29 April until end of May 2022 and Long Itchington Road remains closed until early June 2022.

National Cycle Route 41 will remain open at all times but may be diverted from it's present route (diversion routes will be clearly signposted)

Diversion route for Fosse Way closure

Follow the yellow and black diversion signs on the road, for example:

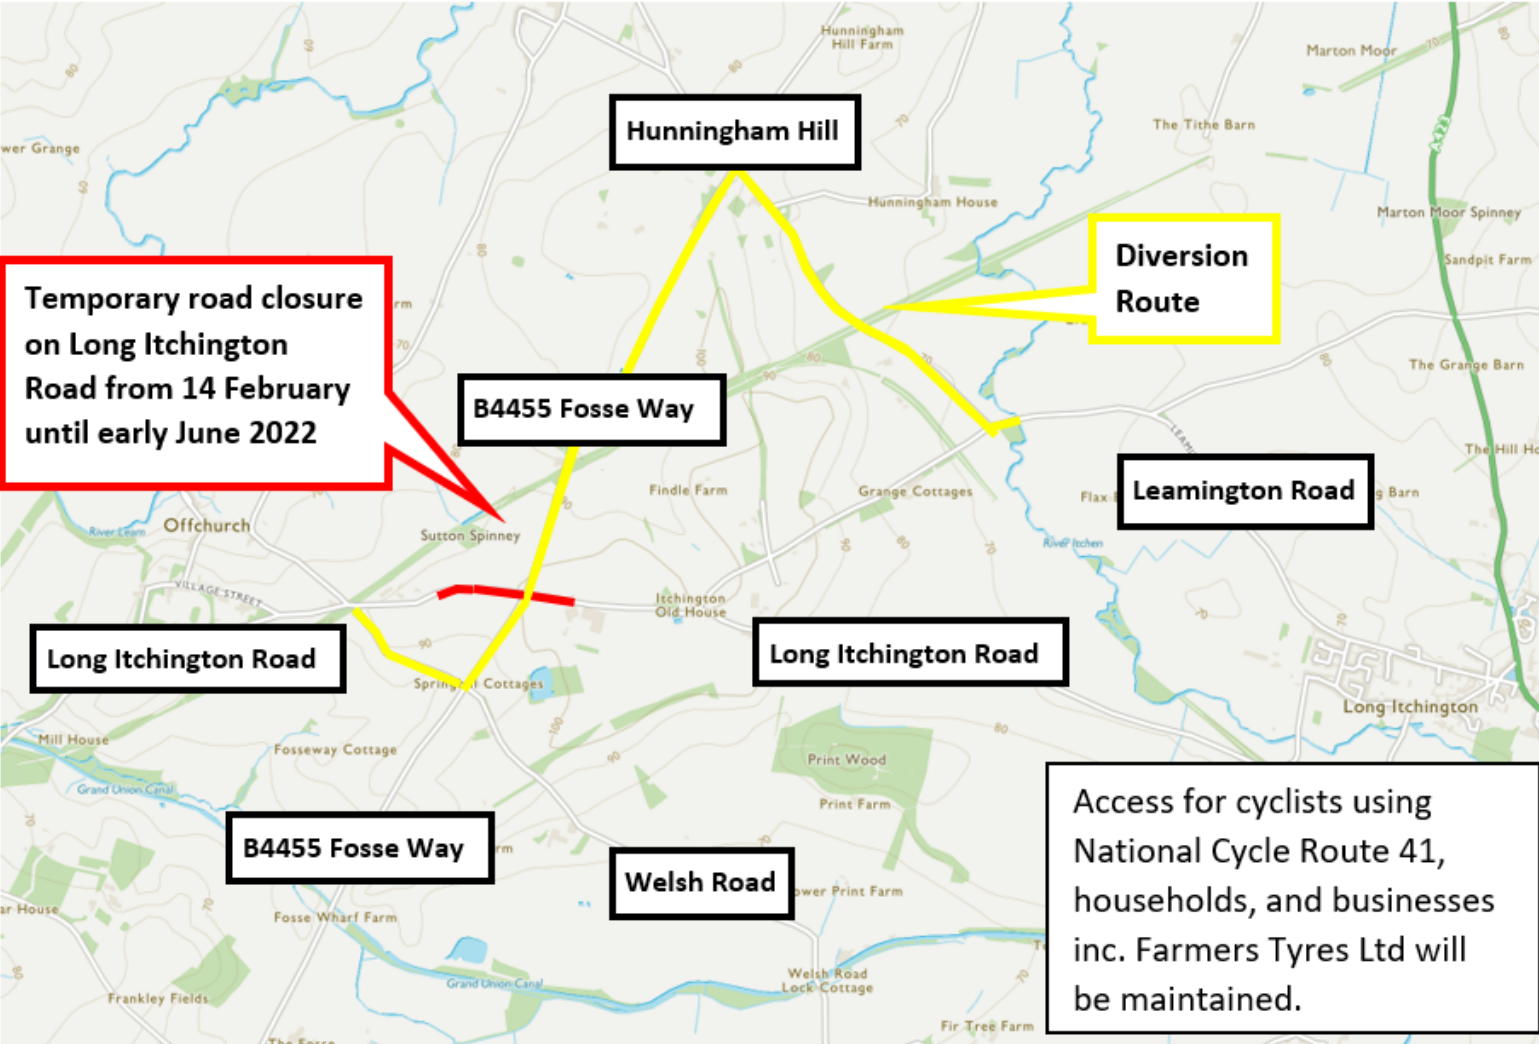

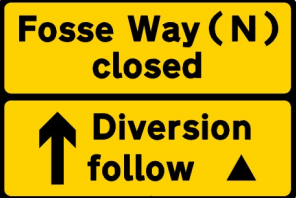

Long Itchington Road closure continues until early June 2022

Diversion route for Long Itchington Road closure

Follow the yellow and black diversion signs on the road, for example:

No road closures planned from mid-June 2022 onwards

